

PRESCOTT, ARIZONA

Distance: 98.8 miles
Travel Time: 1 hour 49 minutes
Phoenix, AZ to Prescott, AZ

Prescott features the historic Whiskey Row, known for its bars and live music venues. In its northeast, you will find Watson Lake. Prescott, AZ is 5,200 feet above sea level. Average temperatures in Prescott is a perfect 70 degrees - with four beautiful seasons and a breathtaking landscape to enjoy it.

WATSON LAKE

One
of two reservoirs at the Granite Dells. Formed in the early 1900's when the dam was built on Granite Creek.

GRANITE MOUNTAIN & GRANITE BASIN LAKE

7,628 foot mountain that covers 12 square miles. Once known as Mount Gurley. Located in the Granite Mountain Wilderness, northern end of the Sierra Prietas, and to the west borders Skull Valley to the west.

FORT WHIPPLE

• Once a U.S. Army Post that served as Arizona Territory's capital prior to the founding of Prescott. Founded by Edward Banker Willis in December of 1863 and originally named Camp Clark.

CONSTELLATION TRAILS

Series
of trail loops with more level ground. Also has marked trails for mountain biking vs. hiking.

SHARLOT HALL MUSEUM

Open-air museum and heritage site opened in 1928 as the Gubernatorial Mansion Museum.
The museum is dedicated to preserving the history and culture of the Central Highlands of Arizona.